Contents

Introduction: Women and Women's Writing against Napoleon

Napoleon and Women? Women against Napoleon!
Waltraud Maierhofer 11

Contemporaries: With Scepter, Sword, or Pen – Forms of Resistance

Englishwomen and Napoleon Bonaparte
Deborah Kennedy 39

Maria Carolina, Queen of Naples: The »Devil's Grandmother« Fights Napoleon
Waltraud Maierhofer 57

Marseilles to Stockholm; Bonaparte to Bernadotte: The unique life of Désirée Clary
Dorothy Potter 79

Anti-war, Anti-Napoleon: Guardians of Material and Spiritual Welfare

French Women Respond to Napoleon
Denise Z. Davidson 95

The Liberation from Napoleon as Self-Liberation. The Year 1813 in the Letters of Rahel Varnhagen
Gertrud Maria Roesch 109

Friederike Brun's Briefe aus Rom (1816): Cosmopolitanism, Nationalism and the Politics of »Geistlichkeit«
Kari Lokke 137

Forms of Aesthetics and Cultural-political Opposition

Diversionary Tactics: Art Criticism as Political Weapon in Staël's Corinne, ou l'Italie (1807)
Heather Belnap Jensen 161

Rewriting the National Paradigm: Staël's De l'Allemagne (1810) and the »German« Defence of Sociability
Beatrice Guenther 187

Napoleon, the Museum, and Memory Politics in Caroline de la Motte Fouqué's Geschichte der Moden… (1829–30)
Silke Arnold-de Simine 205

Belated Nineteenth-century and Twentieth-century opposition: Lessons of Nationalism

The Triumph of Moderation? The »Wars of Liberation« in the Writing of Louise von François
Caroline Bland 223

Fighting Napoleon; Loving the French. Friedrich Spielhagen, Noblesse oblige (1888)
Jeffrey L. Sammons 247

Growing into a Nation: Queen Luise and the Lessons of Nationalism in Adolescent Fiction for Girls
Jennifer Drake Askey 265

Thwarted Enemy. Eros and Self-Assertion in Gertrud Kolmar's Poem Cycle Napoleon und Marie (1920 – 21)
Barbara Besslich 281

List of contributors 301

List of illustrations 304

Acknowledgements 304